

Devicetree Introduction

- Devicetree describes what hardware exists and how it is connected.
- Board and SoC definitions live in .dts and .dtsi files..
- Applications customize hardware using Devicetree overlays.
- Zephyr generates headers and macros from Devicetree at build time.

Key idea: The devicetree is the single source of truth for your hardware.